To the Students:

One who makes up his mind to take charge of his own life and works daily at personal improvement has found the secret of making his life worthwhile. Determine to plan and be at your best.

The test of your intelligence is your ability to take hold of your own life just as it is. Know yourself. Make an estimate of your situations. Consider the circumstances of your birth, your childhood, your home life, your wealth or lack of wealth, the influence of the neighborhood in which you live, your friends, your skills, your limitations and your points of strength. You will find shortcomings which you can correct, handicaps which you must accept and of which you must make the best. But begin. Act. Do something. Things that seem difficult at first will become easy. Rise above your failures. Excellence cannot be reached by merely looking for defects. Exchange your "wishbone for a backbone." The real building of a life or a machine or a social system is the result of positive thinking and constructive action. It cannot be built by the wrecking crew. It requires energy, goodwill, initiative, planning.

A planless life is like a ship without a compass. It gets nowhere because it lacks direction. Consider what you desire to be and to accomplish. Give sustained attention to the great decisions — religion, occupation, marriage, the choice of a home, avocation. Learn from your weaknesses and mistakes. Study the lives of others. Note what helped them most, what hindered them. Look at your life as a whole. Thinking of your expected seventy years in ten year periods. Predict the achievements of each decade. Include provision for each phase of your life. Revise your plan as conditions change. Careful and constant planning is the way to security, happiness, and freedom.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year 1960, we find Helen Durham married to David Leslie, residing on their large country estate near Jamestown.

They have acquired one of the most famous interior decorators, Bette Jean James, who was an old schoolmate of Helen's to redecorate their house.

When Bette arrived, instead of getting busy right away, she and Helen started talking about their old schoolmates.

Helen: What is Mable doing these days, I have not seen her since graduation? She was such a nice schoolmate.

Bette: She is in New York City right now. She has her own beauty shoppe on Fifth Avenue. Oh! yes, I received a letter from her the other day and she said that Jane Thuma was in her shoppe last week. Remember she was always getting her hair cut short, and even though the style has changed she still keeps her hair short. She was on her way to Vassar College, where she is a Latin professor.

Helen: That reminds me I got a letter from Nancy last week. She is the editor for the Los Angeles Times Star. She said that Jim Ferguson is the sports editor for the same paper. Nancy said in her letter that Jim wrote a sports article about Bob Grice signing up with the Brooklyn Dodgers and how well he has been playing in all the games.

Bette: I heard the other day that Billy Harrison is a salesman for the American Pencil Co. and that he just delivered the Juniors at Silvercreek a year's supply. On the way down to your house I passed Bill Allbright's farm of 350 acres. With Nancy's encouragement he is doing very well.

Helen: Yes, I saw him the other day in town. He had his two sons with him. Russel Allen doesn't live very far from us either. He owns a big farm east of Jamestown. He married Janet Garringer. You remember they went together when we graduated.

Bette: I saw Mary Suttles the other day in Dayton and she is a private secretary for Duriran Co. She and Johnny are married and live in Dayton. By the way, doesn't Norma Brown Knisley work in an office at the National Cash Register Co.?

Helen: Yes, they live in Jamestown and I heard that they have a little girl. Oh, I suppose you know that Evelyn Jean Evans lives close to me, on their farm of about 1,000 acres.

Bette: And what is Wilda Knisley doing now?

Helen: She is a secretary of the Crowell Publishing Co. in Springfield. Robert Baker is the owner of the Toni Manufacturing Co. in Chicago, Ill.

Bette: Oh yes, I heard that Lila Madge Wilson is an opera singer and has her own studio in New York City. Oh yes, and Mildred is a telephone operator in Vacaville, California, and is married to Charles Knecht.

Helen: Yes, I remember about her writing to Charles so much in high school. I also heard that Clarence Gifford is a head mechanic at Lang's in Xenia.

Bette: Yes, I stopped in there yesterday and he worked on my car. While I was waiting, I saw Mary Evelyn Glass Stanforth shopping in Milton's. They live in Xenia.

Helen: Keith Seslar has a used car lot in Columbus on Main St. I wonder if he is married? I haven't heard much about him since he was in school. And by the way, Richard Matthews owns the Cudhay Milk Co., where we sell our milk.

Bette: And where is David Swearingen? Did he ever get married to Barbara Haines?

Helen: Yes, and he owns a barber shoppe in Akron, Ohio. I saw Betty Scott Jones in Dayton when I was shopping Saturday. She has a little girl and a boy and lives in Osborn, Ohio.

Bette: And Hazel Sprinkle has made an appointment with me to decorate her home in Ross Township. She has a lovely home and works as a photographer at the Gold Tone Studio in Springfield.

Helen: I almost forgot, I got a letter from Sally Franklin last week and she is married to a rancher and lives in Wyoming. Their ranch consists of over 2,000 acres. Dorothy Pitzer Stafford was down last weekend and said that she is a hostess in an exclusive tea shoppe in Cincinnati, Ohio. They recently built a new home in White Oak.

Bette: And Russel Newton is the owner of the Metropolitan Clothing Store in Dayton.

Helen: Remember Ronnie Kavanagh who rejoined us in the Senior year. He is a preacher in the New Jasper Church.

Bette: Well, I believe that's all the news about our classmates and we had better be getting started on the decorating.

CLASS HISTORY

As we glance back over our records, we are proud to see that seventeen of our graduating class started in the first grade in the fall of 1938. They are: Mary Suttles, Evelyn Persinger, Bette James, Mildred Tidd, Nancy Sanders, Jane Thuma, Mary Evelyn Glass, Sally Franklin, Betty Scott, Russell Allen, Robert Baker, William Allbright, Jimmy Ferguson, Russell Newton, Keith Seslar and Richard Matthews.

In the third grade we welcomed Norma Lee Brown from New Jasper.

Ronnie Kavanagh from Cedarville joined us in the fourth grade.

Billy Harrison from Xenia Central and Dorothy Pitzer from Bloomingburg joined us in the fifth grade.

In the sixth grade we welcomed Mable Slaughter from Alabama and Hazel Sprinkle from Springfield, Ohio.

There were no changes until our Freshman year when Wilda Knisley from Plattsburg joined us and Dorothy Pitzer who had moved away rejoined us.

In our Sophomore year we welcomed David Swearingen from Akron High School and Madge Wilson from Jeffersonville.

In our Junior year we were glad to welcome Helen Durham from Pittsburgh, Ohio and Bob Grice from Brookville.

In our Senior year Ronnie Kavanagh moved back after four years in Cincinnati.

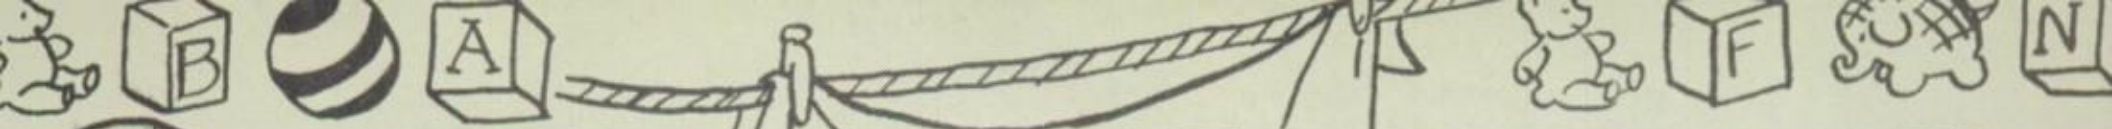

Our Junior Class Play, "The Baby Sitter", was given on Nov. 10, 1948.

Our Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the school building on May 13, 1949. The following menu was served:

Swiss Steak	Grapefruit Juice	Mashed Potatoes
Sweet Potatoes		Buttered Peas
	Relish Plate
	Rolls and Butter
	Coffee
	Cherry Pie and Ice Cream

After dinner we went to the auditorium which, decorated in rainbow colors, was transformed into a ballroom where the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Our Senior Class Play, "Bolts and Nuts", was given on April 21, 1950.
